Ask for help in your home language.	 Use primary language for clarification. 	 Student talks to someone in his or her home language to find out the meaning of an unknown word or phrase. 	•	•	•	•	•
• Show me what you mean.	 Manipulate and act out language. 	Student uses real objects and role-playing to communicate.	•	•	•	•
 Ask or show me when you need help. 	 Ask for adult assistance. 	Student requests help from an adult (verbally and nonverbally).	•	•	•	•
Look at what I do when I talk.	Compare verbal and nonverbal cues.	 Ex: Teacher says, "Smile." Student is confused until seeing the teacher point to his/her mouth, and then student performs the action. 	•	•	•	•
 Learn more about new words. 	Learn from what others know.	Student talks about new word using information modeled by other students.	•	•	•	•
• When you talk to adults, call them Mr. , Ms. , or Mrs. with their last name.	Rehearse variations of language in different social and academic settings.	• Ex: Student calls friends by their first names, but knows to address teachers with titles such as Mr. and Mrs .	•	•	•	•	•	•
 Use different kinds of words in different settings. 		 Ex: Student learns the difference between using the term soil in the classroom and dirt when playing.
 Practice what you learn. 	• Test new expressions through use.	Student learns new word or phrase and practices using it.	•	•	•	•	•
 Say what another student says. 	• Imitate others' language use.	• Ex: Student hears a classmate use the word please or it's your turn and imitates.	•	•	•	•
 Put new words in sentences you know. 	• Learn to use language patterns.	• Student identifies and correctly uses a phrase or sentence pattern. Ex: We have	•	•	•				•	•	•
Use language you know.		• Student identifies and correctly uses a phrase or sentence pattern. Ex: I got five when sharing answers to a math problem.
 Ask or show me when you don't under- stand. 	Seek clarification.	Student uses gesture, word, or phrase to ask for clarification. Ex: What do you mean? What is?	•	•	•		•	•
 Ask me "What do you mean?" when you don't understand.
 Try saying that again another way. 	 Clarify and restate information. 	Students restate what they have said when communication breaks down.		•	•		•
• Tell a friend how to say that.	• Teach a peer.	Student practices recently learned vocabu- lary, phrases, and expressions by teaching a	•	•	•		•	•		•
• Teach a friend.		peer.
• Talk around the problem word.	Paraphrase.	• Student "talks around" an unknown word, hoping to get the meaning across. Ex: The things that you use to put flowers in. (vase)		•	•		•	•	•	•	•
Ask "Do you understand?"	Seek feedback.	• Students seek feedback on language use.		•	•		•	•	•	•	•
 Ask "Did I say that right?" 	Get feedback.	• Students seek feedback on language use.		•	•		•	•	•	•	•

• Try a word and see if it works.	• Coin a word.	 Student makes up a word to describe some- thing, hoping that someone will supply the target word. Ex: bee house (beehive) 		•	•		•	•	•	•	•
• Use your home language to help you understand a word.	• Use a cognate.	 Student uses a home language word, hoping that it is similar to a word in the target language. Ex: I went to the parque. (park) 	•	•	•			•	•	•	•
 How can your home language help you? 		Student uses the meaning of a similar word in the home language to understand English.
Listen for parts you know.	• Attend selectively to input.	Student focuses on breaking down a sentence into understandable language patterns or "chunks." Ex: Teacher says "We're going to do some writing. Take out your paper and pencil." Student focuses on materials needed, i.e., words paper and pencil.	•	•	•			•	•	•
Listen for important parts.		Student learns to listen for key ideas and details.
Work with a friend to help you understand.	• Consult a peer.	Student talks to a classmate to develop understanding.	•	•	•			•	•	•	•
• Ask a friend for help.		Student asks peers, both English language learners and native English speakers, for help.
 It's OK to use things written in your home language to help you. 	Consult home language resources.	Student uses written home language resources, such as books, picture cards, or dictionary.	•	•	•			•	•
 Look in a book in your home language for help.
Sometimes you don't need to know the meaning of every single word to understand.	Skip an unknown word as necessary.	Student skims over unknown words in order to focus on the full meaning of a phrase, sentence, or paragraph. Ex: The spotted dog played in the street can be mostly understood without the word spotted.		•	•			•	•
 Keep listening when you don't understand a word. 		 If students keep listening, they may find that they didn't need to understand a particular word or that context may help them understand it.
 Keep using words you've learned in our theme. 	Use academic language across content areas.	Student uses academic language learned, such as equal, compare, and soil.	•	•	•				•	•	•
 Write down what you learn to help you remember. 	• Take notes to help you remember.	Student learns to write down key ideas and details in note form.	•	•	•					•	•
