THE WANGS VS. THE WORLD

Jade Chang

HMH • Cloth • 9780544734098 • 368 Pages • $26.00 | E-book • 9780544734203 • $26.00

Available in paperback October 2017

“A highly entertaining debut novel . . . A meditation on what it means to be an immigrant in America, The Wangs vs. the World shows the often surprising ways hardship can bring a dysfunctional family closer together.” —BuzzFeed

“Unrelentingly fun, but also raw and profane — a story of fierce pride, fierce anger, and even fiercer love . . . The Wangs vs. the World drives home the fact that there is no one immigrant experience — just humanity in all its glorious, sloppy complexity, doing its best to survive and thrive despite the whims of society and circumstance. With plenty of laughs, both bitter and sweet, along the way.” —NPR.org

The Wangs vs. the World is an outrageously funny tale about a wealthy Chinese-American family that “loses it all, then takes a healing, uproarious road trip across the United States” (Entertainment Weekly). Their spectacular fall from riches to rags brings the Wangs together in a way money never could. It’s an epic family saga and an entirely fresh look at what it means to belong in America.

SALT HOUSES

Hala Alyan

HMH • Cloth • 9780544912588 • 320 Pages • $26.00 | E-book • 9780544912380 • $26.00

“Salt Houses flies like a searchlight between history and fiction, unearthing the life of a single displaced Palestinian family among the rubble and illuminating it so deeply, so brilliantly, we cannot help but connect the story’s richly imagined past to our very real present.”

—Mira Jacob, author of The Sleepwalkers’ Guide to Dancing

“A piercingly elegant novel that registers Palestine with deep resonance for what it is: a once beloved home, known, lost, and reimagined into life. A place where families decide between security and happiness, religion and heritage, where war is constant, yet peace is found. In the exquisite prose of a poet, Hala Alyan shows how we carry our origins in our hearts wherever we may roam, and how that history is calibrated by the places we choose to put down roots. This is a book with the power to both break and mend your heart.”

—Ru Freeman, author of On Sal Mal Lane

From a dazzling new literary voice, a debut novel about a Palestinian family caught between present and past, between displacement and home.

TED TALKS

The Official TED Guide to Public Speaking

Chris Anderson

HMH • Cloth • 9780544634497 • 288 Pages • $28.00 | E-book • 9780544664364 • $28.00

Available in paperback April 2017

“Nobody in the world better understands the art and science of public speaking than Chris Anderson. He has nurtured, coaxed, and encouraged so many speakers over the years (myself included) — helping us to bring forth our very best performances onstage, even when we were at our most nervous and overwhelmed. He is the absolutely perfect person to have written this book, and it will be a gift to many.”

—Elizabeth Gilbert, best-selling author of Big Magic and The Signature of All Things

“This is not just the most insightful book ever written on public speaking — it’s also a brilliant, profound look at how to communicate. If you ever plan to utter a sound, this is a must-read. It gives me hope that words can actually change the world.”

—Adam Grant, Wharton professor and New York Times best-selling author of Give and Take and Originals

For anyone who has ever been inspired by a TED Talk . . . this is an insider’s guide to creating talks that are unforgettable.

TAKE PRIDE

Why the Deadliest Sin Holds the Secret to Human Success

Jessica Tracy

HMH • Cloth • 9780544273177 • 240 Pages • $27.00 | E-book • 9780544273085 • $27.00

Available in paperback September 2017

“An insightful and engaging exploration of a noble joy, a deadly sin, and an essential piece of the human experience.” —Daniel Gilbert, best-selling author of Stumbling on Happiness

“Take Pride is a revelation. A renowned psychologist, Jessica Tracy explains that seeking our best self is nothing to be ashamed of, but that seeking praise at all costs gets us into the worst kind of trouble.” —Angela Duckworth, best-selling author of Grit

“Pride gets a bad rap, says Jessica Tracy. Instead of being an unalloyed vice, it can become something closer to a virtue. In this fascinating book, Tracy uses original research to show that pride is a major part of what it means to be human and can be harnessed as a force for good.” —Daniel H. Pink, best-selling author of Drive and To Sell is Human

A leading psychologist reveals how our most underappreciated emotion — pride — has shaped our minds and our culture, and shows how we can harness its immense power in our everyday lives.

WHEN NOBODY WAS WATCHING

My Hard-Fought Journey to the Top of the Soccer World

Carli Lloyd

HMH • Cloth • 9780544814622 • 256 Pages • $26.00 | E-book • 9780544814554 • $26.00

Available in paperback September 2017

“The point of the memoir . . . is to show how dedication and a relentless work ethic can overcome an endless series of obstacles, both personal and professional.” —Los Angeles Times

“We are reminded time and time again that our role models, the people we think we know because they play for our favorite team, are not at all who we thought. Otherworldly skills and talents aside, they face the same challenges, heartbreaks and doubts as we do. That’s the message that comes through in Lloyd’s book.”

—USA Today

From the celebrated star of the U.S. Women’s National Soccer Team, this is an inspiring, uplifting, and candid memoir of how she got there.

TO PIXAR AND BEYOND

My Unlikely Journey with Steve Jobs to Make Entertainment History

Lawrence Levy

HMH • Cloth • 9780544734142 • 272 Pages • $27.00 | E-book • 9780544734197 • $27.00

Available in paperback November 2017

“What a delightful book about the creation of Pixar from the inside. I learned more about Mr. Jobs, Pixar and business in Silicon Valley than I have in quite some time. And like a good Pixar film, it’ll put a smile on your face.”

—Andrew Ross Sorkin, New York Times

“Enchanting . . . What makes Mr. Levy’s contribution so insightful is not that he plows old ground in greater depth but that he uses his personal story as a vehicle to add a new dimension.”

—New York Times

“Eye-opening and inspiring . . . This delightful book is about finance, creative genius . . . and luck.”

—Fortune

The never-before-told story of Pixar’s improbable success.

HOW EMOTIONS ARE MADE

The Secret Life of the Brain

Lisa Feldman Barrett

HMH • Cloth • 9780544133310 • 448 Pages • $29.00 | E-book • 9780544129962 • $28.00

Available in paperback March 2018

“A brilliant and original book on the science of emotion, by the deepest thinker about this topic since Darwin.”

—Daniel Gilbert, best-selling author of Stumbling on Happiness

“Meticulous, well researched, and deeply thought out . . . For anyone who has struggled to reconcile brain and heart, this book will be a treasure.”

—Andrew Solomon, best-selling author of Far from the Tree and The Noonday Demon

“Ever wonder where your emotions come from? Barrett, a world expert in the psychology of emotion, has written the definitive field guide to feelings and the neuroscience behind them.”

—Angela Duckworth, best-selling author of Grit

A new theory of how the brain constructs emotions that could revolutionize psychology, health care, the legal system, and our understanding of the human mind.

A TALE OF LOVE AND DARKNESS

Amos Oz

Mariner • Paper • 9780156032520 • 560 Pages • $16.95 | E-book • 978015545523 • $14.99

“One of the most enchanting and deeply satisfying books that I have read in many years.”

—New Republic

“[An] ingenious work that circles around the rise of a state, the tragic destiny of a mother, a boy’s creation of a new self.”

—The New Yorker

A family saga and a magical self-portrait of a writer who witnessed the birth of a nation and lived through its turbulent history

A Tale of Love and Darkness is the story of a boy who grows up in a war-torn Jerusalem, in a small apartment crowded with books in twelve languages and relatives speaking nearly as many; the story of an adolescent whose life has been changed forever by his mother’s suicide. The story of a man who leaves the constraints of his family and community to join a kibbutz, change his name, marry, have children; the story of a writer who becomes an active participant in the political life of his nation.

Winner of the National Jewish Book Award

THE ORIGINS OF TOTALITARIANISM

Hannah Arendt

Mariner • Paper • 9780156701532 • 576 Pages • $19.00 | E-book • 9780547543154 • $19.00

Hannah Arendt’s definitive work on totalitarianism and an essential component of any study of twentieth-century political history

The Origins of Totalitarianism begins with the rise of anti-Semitism in central and western Europe in the 1800s and continues with an examination of European colonial imperialism from 1884 to the outbreak of World War I. Arendt explores the institutions and operations of totalitarian movements, focusing on the two genuine forms of totalitarian government in our time — Nazi Germany and Stalinist Russia — which she adroitly recognizes were two sides of the same coin, rather than opposing philosophies of Right and Left. From this vantage point, she discusses the evolution of classes into masses, the role of propaganda in dealing with the nontotalitarian world, the use of terror, and the nature of isolation and loneliness as preconditions for total domination.

THE PRIZE

Who's in Charge of America's Schools?

Dale Russakoff

Mariner • Paper • 9780544810907 • 272 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780547840512 • $15.95

"I repeatedly found myself writing in the margins, 'Wow,' either because of the heroic efforts by teachers and staffers or because of the obstacles facing their students . . . The Prize may well be one of the most important books on education to come along in years."
—Alex Kotlowitz, New York Times Book Review

"A stunning account of efforts by wealthy outsiders and ambitious politicians to fix Newark's failing public schools. Veteran journalist Dale Russakoff's narrative is rich with details and anecdotes that showcase the quality of her writing and bring Newark to life for people who have never lived or visited there . . . The story likely will unnerve educators, reformers, taxpayers, politicians, parents and students anywhere."
—Chicago Tribune

"This is one of the most disturbing and powerful books I've read in years."

Mariner • Paper • 9780544811942 • 368 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780544582927 • $14.95

“Part family heirloom, part history lesson, The Hundred-Year Walk is an emotionally poignant work, powerfully imagined and expertly crafted. The considerable archival scaffolding remains invisible as MacKeen carries her readers on an emotional journey full of heartache and hope.”
—Aline Ohanesian, author of Orhan’s Inheritance

“I’m in awe of what Dawn MacKeen has done here. With the meticulousness of a historian, the courage of an investigative reporter, and the compassion of a daughter mining a fraught and cherished family legacy, MacKeen has accomplished the near impossible. She has elucidated a complicated ethnic and political history through a delightfully literary lens.”
—Meghan Daum, author of The Unspeakable: And Other Subjects of Discussion

SPAIN IN OUR HEARTS

Americans in the Spanish Civil War, 1936–1939

Adam Hochschild

Mariner • Paper • 978544947238 • 480 Pages • $15.99 | E-book • 9780547974538 • $15.99

“George Orwell once explained that going to Spain, in 1936, ‘seemed the only conceivable thing to do.’ As soon as he got there, the right thing to do got a lot less clear . . . The 2,800 hundred Americans who fought in the Spanish Civil War felt the same way, as Adam Hochschild recounts in this rich and fascinating book.”
—Jill Lepore, author of The Secret History of Wonder Woman

“In this beautifully written portrait of Americans caught up in the Spanish Civil War, Adam Hochschild brings to brilliant life the heroism and horror of that fratricidal conflict . . . One of the most powerful narratives I have ever read.”
—Lynne Olson, author of Citizens of London

GHOST FLEET

A Novel of the Next World War

P. W. Singer and August Cole

Mariner • Paper • 9780544705050 • 416 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780544145979 • $14.95

“A novel that reads like science fiction but bristles with rich details about how the next world war could be fought.” —Vice

“If colleges ever decide to offer courses on first-person shooter video games like Call of Duty and Battlefield, they should use the novel Ghost Fleet as the primary textbook.” —Forbes

“A harrowing, realistic future of world war . . . Ghost Fleet also comes with hundreds of footnotes explaining how every single military technology, ‘sci-fi’ weapon and geopolitical trend mentioned in the book is grounded in reality. That’s why, rather than simply a good read, Ghost Fleet can come across as a 400-page warning.” —Wired

“Riveting and necessary and illuminating in countless unexpected ways. The hikers have pulled off the almost impossible task of making from their hellish experience something of beauty and grace.”

—Dave Eggers

In summer 2009, Shane Bauer, Joshua Fattal, and Sarah Shourd were hiking in Iraqi Kurdistan when they unknowingly crossed into Iran and were captured by a border patrol. Accused of espionage, the three Americans ultimately found themselves in Tehran’s infamous Evin Prison, where they discovered that pooling their strength of will and relying on each other were the only ways they could survive. In this poignant memoir, “the hikers” finally tell their side of the story.

How Stories Make Us Human

Jonathan Gottschall

Mariner • Paper • 9780544002340 • 272 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780547644813 • $14.95

“This is a quite wonderful book. It grips the reader.”

—Edward O. Wilson, University Research Professor and
Honorary Curator in Entomology, Harvard University

“A delight to read . . . Boundlessly interesting.”

—Paul Bloom, professor of psychology at Yale and author of How Pleasure Works

In this delightful and original book, Jonathan Gottschall offers the first unified theory of storytelling. He argues that stories are a way of rehearsing life's complex social problems: our penchant for story has evolved, like other behaviors, to enhance our survival, and, crucially, that of our social group. We are master shapers of story. The Storytelling Animal finally reveals how stories shape us.

Mariner • Paper • 9780547834382 • 384 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780547999524 • $15.95

“Engrossing . . . Bordo offers a fascinating discussion.”

—New York Times

“A feast of feminism and history . . . [It] fascinates readers, and informs and entertains along the way.”

—Roanoke Times

“Bordo’s sharp reading of Boleyniana and her clear affection for this proud, unusual woman make this an entertaining, provocative read.”

—Boston Globe

Part biography, part cultural history, The Creation of Anne Boleyn is a reconstruction of Boleyn’s life and an illuminating look at her very active afterlife in the popular imagination.

WANT NOT

Jonathan Miles

Mariner • Paper • 9780544228085 • 400 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780544114630 • $14.95

“I loved this book . . . Jonathan Miles can write, and here he’s written a wonderful book, and there’s no one I would not urge to read it.”

—Dave Eggers, New York Times Book Review

A compulsively readable, deeply human novel that charts the course of three intersecting lives—a freegan couple living off the grid in Manhattan, a once-prominent linguist struggling with midlife, and a New Jersey debt-collection magnate with a new family and a second chance at getting things right—in a thoroughly contemporary examination of that most basic and unquenchable emotion: want.

THE MAN IN THE HIGH CASTLE

Philip K. Dick

Mariner • Paper • 9780544817289 • 288 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780547601205 • $14.95

“The single most resonant and carefully imagined book of Dick’s career.”

—New York Times

It’s America in 1962. Slavery is legal once again. The few Jews who still survive hide under assumed names. In San Francisco, the I Ching is as common as the Yellow Pages. All because some twenty years earlier the United States lost a war—and is now occupied by Nazi Germany and Japan. This harrowing, Hugo Award–winning novel is the work that established Philip K. Dick as an innovator in science fiction while breaking the barrier between science fiction and the serious novel of ideas. In it, Dick offers a haunting vision of history as a nightmare from which it may just be possible to wake.

Mariner • Paper • 9780544570405 • 304 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780544535176 • $15.95

"When Books Went to War is a thoroughly engaging, enlightening, and often uplifting account of America's counterattack against Nazi Germany's wholesale burning of books . . . I was enthralled and moved."

—Tim O'Brien, author of The Things They Carried

While the Nazis were burning hundreds of millions of books across Europe, America printed and shipped 140 million books to its troops. The story of how the books were received, how they connected soldiers with authors, and how an army of librarians and publishers lifted spirits and built a new democratic audience of readers is as inspiring today as it was then.

THE SEVEN STOREY MOUNTAIN

An Autobiography of Faith

Thomas Merton

Mariner • Paper • 9780156010863 • 496 Pages • $16.00 | E-book • 9780547543819 • $16.00

A modern-day Confessions of Saint Augustine, The Seven Storey Mountain is one of the most influential religious works of the twentieth century. It tells of the growing restlessness of a brilliant and passionate young man whose search for peace and faith leads him, at the age of twenty-six, to take vows in one of the most demanding Catholic orders—the Trappist monks. At the Abbey of Gethsemani, “the four walls of my new freedom,” Thomas Merton struggles to withdraw from the world, but only after he has fully immersed himself in it. The Seven Storey Mountain has been a favorite of readers ranging from Graham Greene to Clare Boothe Luce, Eldridge Cleaver, and Frank McCourt. This timeless spiritual book has been published in over twenty languages and has touched millions of lives.

SURPRISED BY JOY

The Shape of My Early Life

C. S. Lewis

Mariner • Paper • 9780156870115 • 252 Pages • $13.95 | E-book • 9780547545486 • $13.95

“Lewis tempered his logic with a love for beauty, wonder, and magic . . .

He speaks to us with all the power and life-changing force of a Plato, a Dante, and a Bunyan.”

—Christianity Today

This book is not an autobiography. It is not a confession. It is, however, certainly one of the most beautiful and insightful accounts of a person coming to faith. It is perhaps this aspect of Surprised by Joy that we—believers and nonbelievers—find most compelling and meaningful. Lewis was searching for joy, for an elusive and momentary sensation of glorious yearning, but he found it, and spiritual life, through the use of reason.

HOW TO BE SECULAR

A Call to Arms for Religious Freedom

Jacques Berlinerblau

Mariner • Paper • 9780544105164 • 336 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780547518282 • $14.99

“As the nasty strife has heated up between religious leaders who intrude their particular values into public life on the one side and noisy atheists who insist that religiously inspired voices should be banned from the public square on the other, I have looked for a book that sorts all this out in a reasonable and convincing manner. This is that book. Well informed, evenhanded, and crafted in a readable, engaging style, it shines a clear light into the murkiness.”

—Harvey Cox, professor of divinity at Harvard and author of The Future of Faith

“Will change the way we think and talk about religious freedom.”

—Randall Balmer, author of Thy Kingdom Come:

Cullen Murphy

Mariner • Paper • 9780547844589 • 320 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780547607825 • $14.95

“A dark but riveting tale, told with luminous grace. The Inquisition, Murphy shows us, represents more than a historical episode of religious persecution. The drive to root out heresy and sin, once and for all, is emblematic of the modern age and a persisting danger in our time.”

—Michael J. Sandel, author of Justice: What's the Right Thing to Do?

BIG DATA

Mariner • Paper • 9780544227750 • 272 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780544002937 • $15.95

“Every decade, there are a handful of books that change the way you look at everything. This is one of those books. Society has begun to reckon the change that big data will bring. This book is an incredibly important start.”

—Lawrence Lessig, Roy L. Furman Professor of Law,
Harvard Law School, and author of Remix and Free Culture

“Illuminating and very timely . . . A fascinating — and sometimes alarming — survey of big data’s growing effect on just about everything: business, government, science and medicine, privacy, and even on the way we think.”

Living Through the Next Fifty Years on Earth

Mark Hertsgaard

Mariner • Paper • 9780547750415 • 352 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780547504445 • $14.99

“In Hot, one of America’s finest journalists confronts one of the world’s most urgent problems. Hertsgaard cuts through the denial and disinformation about climate change, offering a clear, tough-minded view of our predicament. More important, he shows that the worst harms of global warming are not inevitable and outlines the steps that can help to avert disaster. Hot bravely takes aim at perhaps the greatest climate threat of all: apathy.”

—Eric Schlosser, author of Fast Food Nation

“[Hot’s] urgent message is one that citizens and governments cannot afford to ignore.”

—Boston Globe

CONNECTOME

How the Brain's Wiring Makes Us Who We Are

Sebastian Seung

Mariner • Paper • 9780547678597 • 384 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780547508177 • $14.95

"The best lay book on brain science I've ever read."

—Wall Street Journal

"[A] bracing, mind-expanding report from neuroscience's razor edge. Accessible, witty, eminently logical and at times poetic, Connectome establishes Seung as an important new researcher, philosopher and popularizer of brain science. It puts him on par with cosmology's Brian Greene and the late Carl Sagan."

“A fascinating account of an extraordinary suite of biological phenomena only recently come to light.” —Edward O. Wilson

“If you’ve ever doubted the power of microbes to shape society and offer us a grander view of life, read on and find yourself duly impressed.” —BookForum

In the tradition of Jared Diamond’s Guns, Germs and Steel and Neil Shubin’s Your Inner Fish, This Is Your Brain on Parasites is both a riveting investigation of the myriad ways that parasites control how other creatures — including humans — think, feel, and act and a revelatory examination of what it means to be human.

THE JOY OF X

A Guided Tour of Math, from One to Infinity

Steven Strogatz

Mariner • Paper • 9780544105850 • 336 Pages • $15.95 | E-book • 9780547517667 • $15.95

“Strogatz has discovered a magical function that transforms ‘math’ into ‘joy,’ page after wonderful page. He takes everything that ever mystified you about math and makes it better than clear — he makes it wondrous, delicious, and amazing.” —Daniel Gilbert, professor of psychology, Harvard University, and author of Stumbling on Happiness

“I loved this beautiful book from the first page. With his unique ingenuity and affable charm, Strogatz disassembles mathematics as a subject, both feared and revered, and reassembles it as a world, both accessible and magical. The Joy of x is, well, a joy.” —Janna Levin, author of A Madman Dreams of Turing Machines

“The literary ‘Oscars’ features twenty outstanding examples of the best of the best in American short stories.”
—Shelf Awareness

The Best American Short Stories 2016 were selected by Pulitzer Prize winner Junot Díaz. He brings “one of the most distinctive and magnetic voices in contemporary fiction: limber, streetwise, caffeinated and wonderfully eclectic” (Michiko Kakutani, New York Times) to the collection.

THE BEST AMERICAN ESSAYS 2016

Jonathan Franzen, editor; Robert Atwan, series editor

Mariner • Paper • 9780544812109 • 352 Pages • $14.95 | E-book • 9780544812178 • $14.95

A true essay is “something hazarded, not definitive, not authoritative; something ventured on the basis of the author’s personal experiences and subjectivity,” writes guest editor Jonathan Franzen in his introduction. However, his main criterion for selecting The Best American Essays 2016 was, in a word, risk. Whether the risks involved championing an unpopular opinion, the possibility of ruining a professional career, or irrevocably offending family, for Franzen, “the writer has to be like the firefighter, whose job, while everyone else is fleeing the flames, is to run straight into them.”
